University of Nairobi (UoN) in collaboration with partners launched interpreting and translation training at Masters Level in November 2010. In 2019 a Doctoral programme was added and NOW the University launches the Diploma in Community Interpreting.

These produce highly qualified language professionals equipped to take the competitive language examinations of the UN and to compete for jobs in the local setting and the international market on equal footing with those trained in Europe

Career Opportunities

Upon completion of the Diploma in Community Interpreting graduates can pursue careers as Community Interpreters. These may include work as staff interpreters, freelance interpreters, court interpreters and other individuals interested in acquiring or furthering their academic or career objectives in interpreting.

UNIVERSITY OF NAIROBI

ORDINARY DIPLOMA IN COMMUNITY INTERPRETING

The Centre for Translation and Interpretation offers a Diploma in Community Interpreting. This is a professional course designed to train Community Interpreters to international standards so they can respond to the rising market in Africa, especially since the number of migrants requiring multicultural interaction has increased drastically in recent years.

Center for Translation & Interpretation (CTI) at the CCU Building, Main Campus

This Centre is the only one of its kind in East and Central Africa.
